The Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution

R.A.B.I is a welfare charity which helps farming people in financial difficulty.

We help people of all ages for many reasons including: cash flow problems, family breakdowns or bereavements, unexpected circumstances such as extreme weather or accidents/ illness.

We can offer help in many ways:

- Provide emergency grants in a crisis
- Pay domestic utility bills
- Pay for relief farm staff
- Buy disability equipment
- Fund adaptations in the home
- Organise free business appraisals
- Pay for heating
- Help with state benefit claims
- Arrange free debt advice
- Pay for TV licences, lifeline alarms and telephone rental costs
- Help with funeral expenses
- Pay for hospital travel costs
- Provide food vouchers and hampers
- Buy essential white goods

In 2017 R.A.B.I gave out £24,385.00 to beneficiaries in Kent.
